Burgundy 2016 En Primeur Offer

Averys personal selection from the 2016 vintage

"It's the perfect follow-on vintage to 2015 in all but one respect: those tiny quantities after the savage spring frosts... The whites from 2016 are sculpted and intense; the reds are poised, fresh and vivacious – as classical as you like." Andrew Jefford, Decanter

AN INSIDE TRACK TO BURGUNDY 2016

There is no doubt that 2016 is a complicated vintage and volumes are extremely low. But whereas frosts usually hit the low slopes and you'd expect big losses among the Bourgogne and village wines, in 2016, it was the higher slopes with many of the Premier and Grand Crus worst affected. Consequently, there are still some very good value wines available from 2016 and the wines below show you can enjoy this classic vintage at an affordable price.

Jennie Perry

Thibert Père et Fils Macon Verze

Code: C3485016 12-bottles £140

Christophe Thibert owns 22 hectares around Macon and thanks to minimal intervention and judicious use of oak (10% of the Macon Verze is fermented in barrel), these are beautiful, terroir-driven wines that offer outstanding value for money. A lovely, zippy nose with concentrated, ripe fruit and spicy nuances.

Domaine Guy & Yvan Dufouleur Hautes Côtes de Nuits Rouge Dames Huguettes

Code: C2547616 12-bottles £165

This cuvée comes from vines with an average age of around 50 years old, therefore lower yields and greater concentration than a typical Hautes Côtes de Nuits. This is a wine that seriously over-delivers for the price with a beautiful perfume, ripe, concentrated fruit and smoky complexity.

Domaine Guy & Yvan Dufouleur Hautes Côtes de Nuits Blanc Dames Huguettes

Code: C3485116 12-bottles £165

The Dufouleur family have been winemakers and growers for over 400 years and father-and-son Guy and Yvan are the 13th and 14th generation to tend the vines. A beautifully balanced Chardonnay, this is soft and rounded with crisp, fresh acidity and a lovely oatmeal finish.

Domaine Yves Girardin Santenay Blanc Sous la Roche

Code: C3485216 12-bottles £185

The Girardin family have been vinegrowers for 13 generations and in 1981, Jean Girardin divided the estate between his four children. A lovely floral, perfumed Chardonnay, this combines rich, peachy fruit with oatmeal notes and crisp, fresh acidity.

Thibert Père et Fils Pouilly-Fuissé

Code: C2546816 12-bottles £195

"While the entry level wines represent good value, those seeking more intellect should head straight for the Pouilly-Fuisse bottlings that are often imbued with immense complexity and nuance." Neal Martin, The Wine Advocate.

Domaine Yves Girardin Santenay Rouge La Maladiere

Code: C3485316 12-bottles £195

La Maladière is one of only 11 1er Cru vineyards in Santenay and is situated on steep, south-facing slopes above the village of Santenay itself. A very pretty Pinot Noir, this has lovely concentrated, sweet ripe fruit and fresh, vibrant acidity.

Domaine Christophe Buisson Saint Romain Blanc

Code: C0923416 12-bottles £210

Christophe Buisson's domaine is tucked behind the hills of Auxey Duresses and Meursault, in the under-appreciated village of Saint Romain. We were impressed by the 2016 which has a really perfumed nose with crisp, concentrated fruit and a touch of rose petal.

LAROZE DE DROUHIN

Laroze de Drouhin is a project managed by Caroline Drouhin, daughter of Philippe, and the winemaking is done at the cellars of Drouhin Laroze. Caroline purchases grapes from growers in some of the commune's top vineyard sites that complement Drouhin Laroze's impressive vineyard holdings.

We've followed the project from the very beginning in 2008 and are convinced that these wines are among the best value in Burgundy.

Laroze de Drouhin Bourgogne Chardonnay

Code: C1861516 12-bottles £135

This is the only white made by Maison Laroze de Drouhin and comes from vineyards around the villages of Fixin and Marsannay-La-Côte. Some of these vineyards are classified Bourgogne, while others are from the Marsannay appellation. Fermented in barrel and barrel matured for eight months, it's fresh and lemony with ripe orchard fruits, mineral nuances and a long finish.

Laroze de Drouhin Bourgogne Pinot Noir

Code: C0979816 12-bottles £135

This elegant and complex Pinot Noir comes from plots close to the famous appellations of Gevrey-Chambertin and Morey-Saint-Denis, on the lower slopes. It spends around 18 months in barrel and is a great introduction to Caroline's reds. A very concentrated, savoury style with crisp acidity and lovely balance, it really packs a punch for a Bourgogne Pinot Noir!

Laroze de Drouhin Fixin

Code: C2547716 12-bottles £230

Fixin is a village just north of Gevrey-Chambertin and the wines can be very muscular and rich, similar in style to those of its neighbour. Caroline uses around 40% whole bunch fermentation to bring greater complexity to the wine and a silkiness of texture to the density and tannin. Lovely dark, savoury, berry fruit on the nose is complemented by an irresistible fresh and lively quality on the palate. Excellent value.

DOMAINE DUBREUIL-FONTAINE

First established in 1879, Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine in the hillside village of Pernand-Vergelesses is today run by 5th generation Christine Dubreuil. The village of Pernand-Vergelesses is found where Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune meet and the hills are directly across the valley from Corton-Charlemagne.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses Rouge Code: C3136116 12-bottles £185

The red Pernand-Vergelesses comes from a two hectare plot, so there's never a lot of this wine but there are fewer cases than ever in 2016. Lifted and open with ripe, dark berry fruits on the nose and a crunchy, freshness on the palate, it's a very pretty Pinot Noir.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses Blanc Code: C1595916 12-bottles £195

Pernand-Vergelesses vineyards were particularly badly hit by frosts in 2016 and production of this wine is down a staggering 80%. Having said that, what they have made is beautifully textured with voluptuous, ripe fruit, mineral notes and great balancing acidity.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses Clos Berthet 1er Cru Monopole Code: C1596016 12-bottles £295

Clos Berthet is a 1.5 hectare walled vineyard with vines around 40 years old. A nose of fresh peaches and honey leads into a really juicy palate with a creamy texture and mouth-watering acidity

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Corton Bressandes Grand Cru Code: B3485716 6-bottles £230

The hill of Corton is home to the only red Grand Crus of the Côte de Beaune and Dubreuil-Fontaine's plot is right in the middle of Bressandes on a steep slope. There's plenty of richness with dark, inviting, ripe sweet fruit balanced by beautiful freshness and energy.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru Code: B1596116 6-bottles £330

Production was again down significantly this year, around 60-70%. A lovely nose with lemon rind, buttered toast and hints of mineral. Full, rich and creamy with a fresh lemon fruit seam.

DOMAINE JEAN MONNIER

The Monnier family established their estate in Meursault in 1720 and today own around 16 hectares between Beaune and Puligny-Montrachet. The Monniers are enthusiastic about their 2016 wines, describing them as very concentrated with great balancing acidity.

Domaine Jean Monnier & Fils Puligny-Montrachet Code: C2545816 12-bottles £280

From two parcels, one in the village and one just below the Les Referts 1er Cru, this has a core of gorgeous sweet fruit with creamy new oak and a mineral line running through to the finish.

Domaine Jean Monnier et Fils Meursault-Genévrières 1er Cru Code: B2194816 6-bottles £195

The Genévrières vineyard is at the top of the slope where the minerals are more predominant and there's always a delicate minerality to this 1er Cru. A pretty, floral and inviting nose with a very open and expressive palate. Lovely freshness with a touch of savoury oak on the finish.

DOMAINE ANTOINE JOBARD

This domaine has been in the same family since 1860 and Antoine is the 5th generation to take over the reins. He only makes white wines, mainly Meursault and production was down at least 50% in 2016. Antoine describes 2016 as an elegant and classic vintage as opposed to the richer vintage of 2015.

Domaine Antoine Jobard Bourgogne Blanc Code: B0979416 6-bottles £115

A very peaches and cream Chardonnay with a touch of spicy oak on the nose and lovely balancing acidity on the finish.

Domaine Antoine Jobard Meursault En La Barre Code: B0941216 6-bottles £240

Domaine Antoine Jobard Meursault Poruzots 1er Cru Code: B1031116 6-bottles £370

A 1er Cru that tends to be full and rich in style, this has super concentration this year with lots of soft, creamy oak. Really fresh with a silky texture and long finish.

DOMAINE BACHELET-MONNOT

"These guys are just making stupendous white Burgundy wines that rank alongside the best you can find...If you have not discovered the Bachelet brothers yet, it's time to do so." Neal Martin, The Wine Advocate

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Bourgogne Blanc Code: C1593216 12-bottles £155

From vineyards around 30 feet from Puligny-Montrachet, this is very much a mini-Puligny. The vineyards weren't affected by frost at all and it has lovely fruit concentration with a mineral finish.

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Maranges 1er Cru La Fussièrre Rouge Code: C0993616 12-bottles £190

A really elegant Pinot Noir with a complex nose of orange peel, chocolate orange and Christmas spices. Pure, fresh and delicious!

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Maranges 1er Cru La Fussièrre Blanc Code: C1882016 12-bottles £230

Marc and Alex's father was instrumental in making Maranges an AC in 1989. A creamy nose with a touch of hazelnut and really lively, concentrated fruit. There's a streak of lemon acidity and clear minerality.

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Chassagne-Montrachet Code: C2374716 12-bottles £325

This is the first time we've received an allocation of the Bachelet brothers' Chassagne-Montrachet but it's only available in limited quantities.

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Puligny-Montrachet Code: C1050716 12-bottles £345

Intense but focused with soft creamy fruit on the nose, hints of white flowers and really impressive concentration.

DOMAINE DES BEAUMONT

Thierry Beaumont is a seventh generation winemaker with around 5.5 hectares of vineyards in Morey, Gevrey and Chambolle Musigny. He was one of the lucky ones in 2016 and managed to escape most of the hail and frost with grapes being picked in great health and almost no sorting necessary.

DOMAINE LAMARCHE

This estate is run by 6th generation of the Lamarche family, Nathalie and Nicole. They lost about 50% of production in 2016 and decided to eschew any new oak this year and instead focus entirely on fruit purity.

Domaine Lamarche Bourgogne Pinot Noir Code: B2565516 6-bottles £140
A very pretty Pinot Noir with sweet, ripe red fruit on the nose, a silky texture and vibrant, fresh acidity.

Domaine Lamarche Vosne-Romanée Code: B1036316 6-bottles £210

Domaine Jean Grivot Richebourg Grand Cru Code: 1129716 1-bottle £750
Finally a plot that suffered no frost at all, the Richebourg is incredibly dense and powerful but with lovely floral freshness.

DOMAINE BERTAGNA

The vineyards of Domaine Bertagna once belonged to the Cistercian monks, famous for founding Clos de Vougeot in the 13th century. The winery is today owned by the Reh family who have an exceptional collection of vineyards including five Grand Crus.

Domaine Bertagna Vougeot	Code: C2547816	12-bottles	£345

DOMAINE HENRI GOUGES

Gouges is probably Nuits-Saint-Georges' most famous domaine, renowned for its masculine, brooding reds which are always highly sought after. Yields were down about 70% in places but what was harvested was extremely high quality. Early orders essential.

Domaine Henri Gouges Nuits-Saint-Georges	Code: B1051316	6-bottles	£105
Several of the Gouges' 1er Cru vineyards were decimated by frost and in some cases, there wasn't enough fruit to fill a barrel. Instead, the fruit's gone into this delicious Nuits-Saint-Georges which will be excellent value for money.

DOMAINE LOUIS BOILLOT

Louis was formerly at his father's domaine in Gevrey Chambertin but in 2002 moved to Chambolle to be with his partner, Ghislaine Barthod. The two work side-by-side in a small winery and share the same winemaking style but the wines are produced and bottled separately. These are first-class, terroir-driven wines but, sadly, only available in very limited quantities this year.

Domaine Louis Boillot Côte de Nuits-Villages	Code: C1433616	12-bottles	£240
Louis' Côte de Nuits-Villages wines come from his vineyard holdings in the village of Brochon. Rich and dense with good depth of fresh berry fruit and a silky texture.

DOMAINE FRANCOIS BUFFET

The Buffet family have been making wine in Burgundy since 1692 and since Marc-Olivier Buffet took over in 2005, quality has soared. Volumes are down massively in 2016 so please get in touch with us as soon as possible to reserve these wines.

Winemaker, Marc-Olivier Buffet.

Domaine François Buffet Volnay	Code: C1593816	12-bottles	£305
Marc-Olivier usually makes around 20 barrels of this wine. This year, he made just one. A very elegant expression of Pinot Noir with pretty cherry fruit on the nose. It's lively, fresh and juicy with a delicacy typical of Volnay.
Domaine François Buffet Pommard	Code: C2195716	12-bottles	£315

DOMAINE JOSEPH VOILLOT

"For those who prefer their Burgundy more "classic" in style, for those that might have a penchant for de Montille or Michel Lafarge, Joseph Voillot will be right up your street." Neal Martin, www.robertparker.com

Joseph Voillot retired in 1995 and the estate is now looked after by his son-in-law, Jean-Pierre Charlot, one of our favourite winemakers in the Côte d'Or. His wines have a stunning sense of balance with beautiful delicacy and grace. As Neal Martin suggests, they rival wines from the best domaines in Volnay and yet prices, as yet, do not reflect this.

Jean-Pierre lost around 50% of his crop in 2016 owing to hail and consequently, it is more important than ever to secure these wines en primeur. This was one of the highlights of our trip to Burgundy last year and we cannot recommend the wines highly enough.

Winemaker Jean-Pierre Charlot

Domaine Joseph Voillot Bourgogne Pinot Noir Code: C2190816 12-bottles £165

Coming from vines around Volnay and Meursault, this is very fragrant with hints of rose petal and underlying creamy notes. It's very typical of Jean-Pierre's wines which are incredibly finely spun and tendre in style. Certainly not a typical Bourgogne Pinot Noir, this is always a superb buy.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Pommard Code: C0955916 12-bottles £305

Jean-Pierre's Pommard is as far away from the rustic Pommards of old as you can imagine. Very elegant with ripe black fruits, herbal notes and supple, ripe tannins, it's already accessible and will be delicious on release.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Volnay 1er Cru Champans Code: B1035716 6-bottles £255

Jean-Pierre considers Champans to be his top cuvée and fortunately, this walled vineyard was largely spared by Mother Nature in 2016. The vines average 60 years old but some were planted as early as 1934. These old vines give it a richness and density balanced by a silkiness of texture and overall finesse.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Volnay 1er Cru Fremiets Code: B2195816 6-bottles £255

From a 1.5 acre plot whose vines date from 1932, 1950 and 1978. A lovely bouquet with dark fruits framed by a variety of spices. Powerful yet elegant with a really long and fresh finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Pommard 1er Cru Pézerolles Code: B1051016 6-bottles £350

Pézerolles sits just above Epenots on the border with Beaune and produces arguably the most elegant and perfumed of Pommards. The 2016 has a beautiful floral bouquet with fresh berry fruit. Excellent precision and fluidity with a breezy, lifted finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Pommard 1er Cru Epenots Code: B2192116 6-bottles £350

This was the most muscular and structured wine we tasted at Voillot. From vines over 50 years old, it has an intense bouquet with dark fruits, spice and blueberry notes. A Pinot Noir that manages to perfectly balance richness and freshness.

REMOISSENET PÈRE ET FILS

The Avery family has been good friends with the Remoissenets for over half a century and Roland Remoissenet even spent time working in our Bristol Cellars. Roland has now retired but the company is thriving under Bernard Repolt, together with Pierre Rovani, former Burgundy editor at Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate, and winemaker Claudine Jobard.

Remoissenet Père et Fils Saint-Romain Blanc Code: C1055816 12-bottles £220

From vineyards in 'Combe Bazin', an area of Saint-Romain being considered for 1er Cru status. Rich and rounded with soft peach aromas and a streak of crisp, fresh mineral acidity, it's reminiscent of Meursault.

Remoissenet Père et Fils Beaune 1er Cru Marconnets Code: B1031216 6-bottles £185

Marconnets sits on the far northern side of Beaune, near Savigny. There's lots of creamy perfumed oak on the nose nicely balanced by rich, old-vine fruit. Full and structured with a long, creamy finish.

Remoissenet Père et Fils Nuits-St-Georges Code: B3485516 6-bottles £200

Remoissenet's Nuits-Saint-Georges comes from vineyards in the north of the appellation, near Vosne-Romanée and it's very silky and feminine in style. Crisp red berries come to the fore on the nose with a driving energy and freshness on the palate and lovely density of fruit.

Remoissenet Père et Fils Vosne-Romanée Code: B2558716 6-bottles £220

As is typical of Vosne-Romanée, this manages to combine power and finesse. Rich, ripe black fruit is complemented by a silkiness of texture and a fresh, mineral finish.

Remoissenet Père et Fils Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Le Trio Code: B1592116 6-bottles £295

Le Trio is a blend of 1er Cru fruit from Cherbaudes, Champonnets and Craipillots harvested and vinified together. It's a complex, rich wine with layers of crunchy dark fruit, mineral notes and spice.

Remoissenet Père et Fils Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru Code: B1032216 6-bottles £450

Remoissenet Père et Fils Corton Charlemagne Grand Cru MAGNUM Code: B2589016 6-bottles £925

Dense and full with beautiful ripe fruit on the nose. Lovely concentration on the palate, it's richly textured with a line of lemon and lime acidity, and a long, rich, tropical fruit finish.

DOMAINE DES MALANDES

Domaine des Malandes has been in the Tremblay family for generations and has been well looked after by Lyne Marchive (née Tremblay) since 1972. It is one of our favourite Chablis domaines and as Allen Meadows of Burghound writes "Readers who are not familiar with the wines owe it to themselves to try a few bottles". Lyne and her team suffered significant damage in the April frosts, so we consider ourselves incredibly fortunate to have these wines to offer you.

Lyne Marchive

Domaine des Malandes Chablis Villages

Code: C0935816 12-bottles £130

A lovely, fresh Chablis with mouth-watering citrus fruit, a hint of creaminess and clear minerality. Delicate floral notes combine with lovely lemon fruit on the crisp, fresh finish.

Domaine des Malandes Chablis 1er Cru Vau de Vey

Code: B1063516 6-bottles £160

This wasn't yet bottled when we tasted it in November but it was already very weighty with ripe, concentrated fruit and a lick of fine oak. There's still plenty of minerality and crisp citrus fruit to invigorate the palate with baked apple and vanilla notes on the long finish.

Domaine des Malandes Chablis Grand Cru Vaudésir

Code: B1127216 6-bottles £185

Vaudesir is widely considered one of Chablis' very best Grand Crus and this wine demonstrates why. Vibrant citrus elements are combined with a fine, chalky edge and although rich and mouthfilling, it's more restrained and arguably more 'classic' than the 2015.
