

BURGUNDY 2018 EN PRIMEUR

AVERYS' PERSONAL SELECTION FROM THE 2018 VINTAGE

BURGUNDY BEST BUYS 2018

There are excellent wines to be had at all price levels in 2018. Here's just a small selection of wines that we consider to be among the best value of the vintage.

LAROZE DE DROUHIN

Laroze de Drouhin is a project managed by Caroline Drouhin, daughter of Philippe, and the winemaking is done at the cellars of Drouhin Laroze (p12). Caroline purchases grapes from growers in some of the commune's top vineyard sites that complement Drouhin Laroze's impressive vineyard holdings. We've followed the project since its creation in 2008 and the wines are consistently excellent.

Laroze de Drouhin Bourgogne Chardonnay

Code: C1861517 12 Bottles £150

This is the only white made by Laroze de Drouhin and comes from vineyards around the villages of Fixin and Marsannay-La-Côte. It's really classy stuff with elevated aromatics, pure, defined fruit and a delicious finish.

Laroze de Drouhin Bourgogne Pinot Noir

Code: C979817 12 Bottles £150

The Bourgogne Rouge comes from plots close to Gevrey Chambertin and Morey-Saint-Denis, on the lower slopes. And like the white, this is really smart for a 'Bourgogne' wine. It has lashings of charming berry fruit whilst still remaining very streamlined and elegant.

Laroze de Drouhin Fixin

Code: C2547717 12 Bottles £255

Caroline's Fixin has always been impressive and the 2018 is no exception. It's broad and muscular in style with lots of blackcurrant fruit and blackcurrant leaf, nicely balanced by fresh acidity.

DOMAINE FRANÇOIS BERTHENET

The Berthenets have been growing grapes for around 400 years but the domaine itself wasn't established until 1974. Initially, they sold grapes to the co-op but since 2001 have been bottling their own wines.

Domaine François Berthenet Montagny 1er Cru Vieilles Vignes

Code: C3140118 12 Bottles £160

The Berthenets have some excellent hillside vineyards in Montagny with the Vieilles Vignes coming from the oldest plots and partially aged in oak casks. It's a charming, approachable Chardonnay with ripe orchard fruit, subtle oak and an attractive, lifted finish.

DOMAINE MARCHAND FRÈRES

Domaine Marchand Frères was founded in 1813 and for most of the seven generations since was based in Morey Saint Denis. However, in 1983 the family bought a winemaker's house in the centre of Gevrey Chambertin where they are now based.

Domaine Marchand Frères Gevrey Chambertin Vieilles Vignes

Code: C3938518 12 Bottles £330

Thanks to the old vines, there's lovely concentration in this village Gevrey which comes from two lieux-dits – Pressonier and Le Fourneau. Pronounced and well-defined, it has plush, sensual fruit with a long-lasting finish.

DOMAINE DES MALANDES (CHABLIS)

Domaine des Malandes has been in the Tremblay family for generations and has been run by Lyne Marchive (née Tremblay) since 1972. This is only the second vintage that has been overseen by her children, Richard (also of Domaine Richard Rottiers in Moulin-a-Vent), Amadine and Marion, along with winemaker Guénolé Breteau. Allen Meadows of Burghound writes "Readers who are not familiar with the wines owe it to themselves to try a few bottles". Here are his notes and scores on the 2018 wines.

Domaine des Malandes Chablis 1er Cru Vau de Vey

Code: C1063518 12 Bottles £175

"A discreet application of wood sets off aromas of green fruit and better typicity. The nicely rich, succulent and vibrant flavors offer perfectly good if not truly distinguished complexity on the clean, dry and saline-inflected finish." 89pts.

Domaine des Malandes Chablis 1er Cru Côte de Léchet

Code: C1030918 12 Bottles £185

"The hallmark ripe citrus aromas are laced with hints of petrol, spiced apple and a floral whiff where again there is just enough typicity to be persuasive. The very rich, sappy and caressing medium-bodied flavors possess an attractive mid-palate mouth feel that contrasts somewhat with the linear, short and mildly edgy finish." 89-91pts.

Domaine des Malandes Chablis Grand Cru Vaudésir

Code: B1127218 6 Bottles £205

"Once again moderate wood influence can be found on the essence of pear liqueur aromas that possess good if not special typicity as well as a whiff of the exotic. The rich and intense middle weight flavors possess evident refinement that carries over to the markedly dry, clean and focused finale." 90-93pts

Domaine des Malandes Chablis Grand Cru Les Clos

Code: B1051718 6 Bottles £210

"Subtle but not invisible wood sets off cool, pure and airy aromas that include oyster shell, white flower, citrus rind and shellfish. The racy, intense and powerful flavors are bigger than those of the Vaudésir while displays even more minerality on the clean, dry, focused and solidly lengthy finish." 91-93pts.

SAMUEL BILLAUD (CHABLIS)

"Producing classy wines of crystalline purity, this address already belongs on any list of Chablis's best"

Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate.

Samuel Billaud was winemaker at his family winery, Domaine Billaud-Simon, before he struck out on his own in 2009. He owns around four hectares of vineyards which he supplements with grapes he purchases. Due to his long-established connections in the region, he is able to buy from some of the best growers in the region. The wines here are really exciting and are deservedly being acclaimed as among the best in the region.

Samuel Billaud Chablis 1er Cru Les Vaillons Vieilles Vignes

Code: C3769818 12 Bottles £240

From a single plot of 60-year-old vines within the Vaillons 1er Cru, fermented and aged in stainless steel. This is sumptuous, long and rich with the ripe fruit beautifully balanced by a fine line of acidity. Impressive energy and drive.

Samuel Billaud Chablis 1er Cru Montée de Tonnerre

Code: C13770118 12 Bottles £295

Montée de Tonnerre is considered one of Chablis' finest vineyards – a Grand Cru in all but name. This certainly lives up to its reputation with beautiful pure orchard fruits and a long, focused finish. Very fine and elegant.

Samuel Billaud Chablis Grand Cru Bougros

Code: B3770218 6 Bottles £300

Fermented and aged for 12 months in oak casks, this will then spend a second winter in stainless steel to extend the ageing on the fine lees. Intense, rich and concentrated with considerable power but slick and racy with mouth-watering acidity and a long finish.

Samuel Billaud Chablis Grand Cru Valmur

Code: B3770318 6 Bottles £300

Fermented and aged for twelve months in oak barrels, then like the Bougros, this spends a second winter in stainless steel. Dense and powerful, it combines fresh citrus with spicy oak. Very limited quantities.

DOMAINE YVES GIRARDIN

The Girardin family have been growers for 13 generations and in 1981, Jean Girardin divided the estate between his four children. Yves, who initially had just three hectares, has now grown his domaine to 21 hectares and has also purchased the family property, Château de la Charrière.

Domaine Yves Girardin Santenay 1er Cru La Maladière Code: C3485318 12 Bottles £195

La Maladière is one of only 11 1er Cru vineyards in Santenay and is situated on steep, south-facing slopes above the village of Santenay itself. There's good richness of fruit with a lick of oak balanced by vibrancy and fresh acidity.

Domaine Yves Girardin Santenay Sous la Roche Blanc Code: C3485218 12 Bottles £210

Yves' white Santenay spends around 12 months in barrel. It has a delicate perfume with lovely fruit that builds on the palate and high-tensile acidity that gives lovely precision and focus.

DOMAINE RAPET PÈRE ET FILS

This historic family estate was first created in 1765 and is today looked after by Vincent Rapet. Based in the village of Pernand-Vergelesses, the vineyards lie on and around the hill of Corton.

Domaine Rapet Père et Fils Pernand Vergelesses 1er Cru Sous Fretille Code: C923218 12 Bottles £195

From 50-year-old vines and fermented and aged in oak, this is an ultra-fine Chardonnay with impressive tension and a fresh, elevated finish.

DOMAINE DUBREUIL-FONTAINE

First established in 1879, Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine in the hillside village of Pernand-Vergelesses is today run by 5th generation Christine Dubreuil. The family own and live in Clos Berthet, Pernand-Vergelesses' only monopole and this is one of the highlights of their range. For extremely well-priced and well made wines, this domaine is hard to beat.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses Rouge Code: C3136118 12 Bottles £185

The red Pernand Vergelesses comes from a 2 hectare plot and it's very lifted and open in style. Pretty, ripe red berry fruit is accompanied by lovely, bright freshness and a hint of pepper.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses Blanc Code: C1595918 12 Bottles £210

A very rounded and giving Chardonnay with delicate white flower aromas. Ripe peachy fruit on the palate is balanced by refreshing, fine acidity.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses Rouge Monopole Clos Berthet Code: C3938618 12 Bottles £220

We tasted this over lunch with Christine and it's very pretty with soft red berry fruit – raspberry and cherry – lovely freshness and excellent grip and precision. Refreshing and elegant in style.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Pernand-Vergelesses 1er Cru Clos Berthet Monopole Code: C1596018 12 Bottles £325

Clos Berthet is a 1.5 hectare walled vineyard with vines around 40 years old. It's perfectly poised with ripe orchard fruit, a fine mineral backbone and great drive and energy towards the long finish.

Domaine Dubreuil-Fontaine Corton-Bressandes Grand Cru Code: B3485718 6 Bottles £245

The hill of Corton is home to the only red Grand Crus of the Côte de Beaune and Dubreuil Fontaine's plot is right in the middle of Bressandes on a steep slope. A gorgeous heady nose – dark fruit, spice and a touch of graphite – with great concentration on the palate. Lovely clarity and precision.

Dubreuil-Fontaine Fontaine Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru Code: B1596118 6 Bottles £385

As delicious as ever, this has beautiful lemony fruit with hints of mineral and wet stone slate. With razor sharp focus and crisp, fine acidity, it has good ageing potential.

DOMAINE JEAN MONNIER

"This is an estate whose wines I recommend with much enthusiasm."

Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate.

The Monnier family established their estate in Meursault in 1720 and today own around 16 hectares between Beaune and Puligny Montrachet. All the wines are made from estate-grown fruit and everything is hand-harvested. Father and son team Jean-Claude and Nicolas make wines that offer extraordinary price versus quality for Burgundy and the 2018s are among the best we've ever tasted from this domaine.

Nicolas Monnier at
Domaine Jean Monnier

Domaine Jean Monnier et Fils 1er Cru Beaune Montrevenots Blanc

Code: C2545718 12 Bottles £180

Montrevenots is a 1er Cru vineyard at the southern limits of Beaune. An angled and structured Chardonnay with crunchy green apple fruit and a saline, fine finish.

Domaine Jean Monnier et Fils Meursault

Code: C2545018 12 Bottles £280

More buxom in style, this comes from 40 year old vines and is beautifully ripe (but not over-ripe) and creamy with crisp, fresh acidity.

Domaine Jean Monnier et Fils Puligny-Montrachet

Code: C2545818 12 Bottles £295

From two parcels, one in the village and one just below Les Referts 1er Cru. Very crisp and precise, this has lots of coiled tension with a super-long finish.

Domaine Jean Monnier et Fils Meursault 1er Cru Charmes

Code: B2545618 6 Bottles £200

Brooding, rich and intense with crisp acidity to balance and a fresh saline, wet stone finish. A Meursault that shows both power and elegance.

Domaine Jean Monnier et Fils Meursault 1er Cru Genevrières

Code: B2194818 6 Bottles £210

The Genevrières vineyard is at the top of the slope where the minerals are more predominant and there's always a delicate minerality to this 1er Cru. Rich and complex with orchard fruit, butter and bread, yeasty notes, it finishes long with a fine mineral definition.

DOMAINE ANTOINE JOBARD

This domaine has been in the same family since 1860 and Antoine is the 5th generation to take over the reins. Antoine is extremely proud of his 2018 wines which he considers to be the finest vintage of his career. Miss them at your peril!

Domaine Antoine Jobard Bourgogne Blanc

Code: B979418 6 Bottles £120

I think we said that this was one of the best value whites we tasted last year and it wowed us again this vintage. It has stunning intensity with a refreshing sherbet and citrus lift. Great energy with a gorgeous, alive mouthfeel.

Domaine Antoine Jobard Meursault En La Barre

Code: B941218 6 Bottles £255

This is a village wine from a lieu dit vineyard just down the road from the Jobard home. Very smooth with notes of lemon and lime, and a flash of ginger. The fruit is balanced by fine, shimmering acidity with a decadent lift on the finish.

Domaine Antoine Jobard Meursault 1er Cru Poruzots

Code: B1031118 6 Bottles £390

Poruzots is a 1er Cru that tends to be full and rich in style and the 2018 is flamboyant yet also wonderfully measured with great balance and control. Exhilarating stuff with real power and spice as well as crystalline purity and precision.

DOMAINE BACHELET-MONNOT

"These guys are just making stupendous white Burgundy wines that rank alongside the best you can find...If you have not discovered the Bachelet brothers yet, it's time to do so." Neal Martin, The Wine Advocate.

Bachelet Monnot is a relative newcomer to the Burgundy scene – only founded in 2005 – but brothers Marc and Alex Bachelet are already considered among Puligny Montrachet's elite. They adopt a very natural, labour-intensive approach – soils are ploughed, yields are kept low and all grapes are hand-picked at optimum ripeness. These wines are always popular and the 2018s will once again delight.

Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Bourgogne Blanc	Code: C1593218	12 Bottles	£160
Domaine Bachelet-Monnot Maranges 1er Cru La Fussière Rouge	Code: C993618	12 Bottles	£200

The Chavy family is one of Puligny-Montrachet's most established names with a history stretching back around 200 years. The wines used to be bottled under the label Domaine Gerard Chavy et Fils but in 2003, the two brothers split the vineyards to create their own domaines. Alain now owns around 7 hectares and is making classically styled Puligny of great elegance and finesse.

DOMAINE JOSEPH VOILLLOT

"For those who prefer their Burgundy more 'classic' in style, for those that might have a penchant for de Montille or Michel Lafarge, Joseph Voillot will be right up your street."

Neal Martin, www.robertparker.com

Joseph Voillot retired in 1995 and the estate is now looked after by his son-in-law, Jean-Pierre Charlot (who had worked alongside Joseph for 15 years), one of our favourite winemakers in the Côte d'Or. He has a huge respect for Burgundy traditions and lets the terroir do the talking. He was joined at the family domaine in 2016 by his nephew, Etienne Chaix, and together they make wines of wonderful purity, delicacy and grace.

Etienne Chaix, nephew of Jean-Pierre Charlot at Domaine Joseph Voillot

Domaine Joseph Voillot Bourgogne Pinot NoirCode: C2190818 12 Bottles £175

We've long been fans of Jean-Pierre's Bourgogne Pinot Noir which comes from around Volnay and Meursault. The 2017 is bright and lifted with crunchy, bramble fruit and fresh acidity. Easy to love.

Domaine Joseph Voillot VolnayCode: C1050918 12 Bottles £310

Very much in Jean Pierre's 'house' style, this is fine-boned, tender and aromatic with wonderful purity of fruit. Silky, elegant and very harmonious.

Domaine Joseph Voillot PommardCode: C955918 12 Bottles £325

Jean-Pierre's Pommard is always very elegant in style and the 2018 is no exception. Medium-bodied, it has lots of lovely redcurrant fruit, supple tannin and an attractive lift on the finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Volnay 1er Cru ChampansCode: B1035718 6 Bottles £275

The vines average 60 years of age in this plot with some planted as early as 1934. These old vines give it an incredible richness and the fruit is on the dark side with blackcurrants, blueberry and chewy tapenade. An incredibly long expansive finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Volnay 1er Cru FremietsCode: B2195818 6 Bottles £275

From a 1.5 acre plot with vines that date back to 1932. Plush and silky with red fruits, delicate minerality and fine acidity on the finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Pommard 1er Cru EpenotsCode: B2192118 6 Bottles £370

From 50+ years old vines, this is a full, structured Pinot Noir – serious and brooding in style with a core of rich fruit and a long, decadent finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Pommard 1er Cru PézerollesCode: B1051018 6 Bottles £370

Pézerolles sits just above Epenots on the border with Beaune and produces beautifully elegant and perfumed Pommards. It has a brilliant core of rich fruit with a luscious, velveteen texture and long, grippy finish.

Domaine Joseph Voillot Pommard 1er Cru RugiensCode: B1059118 6 Bottles £380

Les Rugiens is a 1er Cru just south of Pommard and Jean-Pierre's vines here date back to 1959! That explains the amazing concentration of fruit – blackcurrants, blackberries and a touch of raspberry. Lovely pure, plush finish.

DOMAINE FRANÇOIS BUFFET

The Buffet family has been making wine in Burgundy since 1692. Marc-Olivier Buffet took over from his father in 2005 and has taken the wines to another level. He has 7 hectares of vineyards including prime holdings in Volnay and Pommard.

Domaine François Buffet Volnay Code: C1593818 12 Bottles £324

A tender, aromatic Volnay with pretty red berry fruit and a supple texture. The vibrancy of fruit is balanced by a refreshing acidity on the long finish.

Domaine François Buffet Pommard Code: C2195718 12 Bottles £348

We've always said that this Pommard is closer to 1er Cru in quality and that's not surprising given that around 1/3 of the blend comes from 1er Cru vineyards. A very elegant Pommard with ripe, plush fruit and lovely purity.

Domaine François Buffet Pommard 1er Cru Les Rugiens Code: B1050618 6 Bottles £330

From vines over 100 years old, this is incredibly concentrated with luscious, black fruit and a velveteen texture. 1/3 whole bunch fermentation gives a lifted freshness and silky tannins. A Pommard with a lot of finesse.

Domaine François Buffet Volnay 1er Cru Clos de la Rougeotte Monopole Code: B3938818 6 Bottles TBC

Clos de la Rougeotte is a monopole to the north-east of the village. It's a wine with beautiful purity and tension, typical of Marc-Olivier's graceful, delicate style, together with a brooding intensity on the finish.

DOMAINE HENRI GOUGES

Gouges is probably Nuits-Saint-Georges' most famous domaine, renowned for its masculine, brooding reds. Their vineyard holdings are quite extraordinary with 30 out of their 36 acres being 1er Cru sites, including some of the finest vineyards in Nuits-Saint-Georges. They make 7 different 1er Crus and this year, we've selected 4 for you.

Domaine Henri Gouges Nuits-Saint-Georges Code: B1051318 6 Bottles TBC

The Nuits-Saint-Georges comes from several plots, mainly in the south of the commune. It has a tight core with rich, bramble fruit, spice and fine salinity on the finish. As is typical of Gouges' wines, this will repay cellaring.

Clos des Porrets is a 9 acre monopole renowned for its elegance and finesse. Lifted and elegant with bright, precise fruit and decidedly plush for such a youthful wine from Gouges.

Domaine Henri Gouges Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru Les Pruliers Code: B1684718 6 Bottles TBC

Les Pruliers is a parcel of 50-year-old vines close to Clos des Porrets producing very classic, muscular Nuits-Saint-Georges. The 2018 is very harmonious with layers of dark fruit, savoury and floral hints. Beautiful precision and a long, expansive finish.

Domaine Henri Gouges Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru Les Vaucrains Code: B924318 6 Bottles TBC

Domaine Henri Gouges Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru Les St Georges Code: B1025418 6 Bottles TBC

Les St Georges is Nuits-Saint-Georges' most celebrated 1er Cru, considered by many to be of Grand Cru quality and the 2018 lives up to those claims. Rich and sumptuous fruit is harnessed by piercing focus and cooling salinity with an almost ethereal quality. Superb.

Les Millandes is just below the Grand Cru of Clos Saint-Denis. The vines are around 65 years old and it's one of the most structured of Thierry's Moreys. The fruit is lovely and ripe – dark cherry and blackberries – with hints of spice and balancing fresh acidity.

Les Ruchots is Thierry's smallest plot, a fantastic site facing Clos de Tart. It's minuscule production – 600 bottles in 2018 – but incredible stuff! Rich and sumptuous fruit is balanced by great energy and drive.

DOMAINE LOUIS BOILLOT

Louis was formerly at his father's domaine in Gevrey Chambertin but in 2002 moved to Chambolle to be with his partner, Ghislaine Barthod. The two works side by side in a small winery and whilst they share a similar winemaking style, their wines are produced and bottled separately.

Domaine Louis Boillot Côte de Nuits-Villages

Code: C1433618 12 Bottles TBC

Louis' Côte de Nuits-Villages comes from his vineyard holdings in the village of Brochon. As ever, it's a serious, smart Côte de Nuits with excellent controlled power and lovely, lifted freshness on the finish.

Domaine Louis Boillot Gevrey-Chambertin

Code: C1902018 12 Bottles TBC

The Gevrey Chambertin comes from 8 different plots, all old vines including a parcel of 80-year-old vines. There's lovely fluidity and suppleness of texture with ripe fruit and balancing freshness on the distinguished finish.

Domaine Louis Boillot Gevrey-Chambertin 1er Cru Champonnet

Code: B1036618 6 Bottles TBC

Champonnet is one of the cooler sites in Gevrey and there's a clear mineral tension to this beautifully balanced Pinot Noir. It's broad-shouldered and bursting with ripe fruit but reigned in with a sleek, mineral burst and taut, fresh acidity.

DOMAINE HERESZTYN-MAZZINI

"Heresztyn-Mazzini is in the same mould as their neighbour, Pierre Duroché: very hands-off winemaking, letting the vineyard speak; mineral-driven and elegant wines... Yes, I know the name is a bit of a tongue-twister, but trust me, the wines are worth seeking out."

Neal Martin.

This is a new domaine to us and relatively new itself. Domaine Heresztyn has been around since the 1930s but was re-born Domaine Heresztyn-Mazzini in 2012 when Florence Heresztyn took over with her husband, Simon Mazzini, a highly regarded winemaker from Champagne. You can tell a huge amount of care and attention has gone into these wines which are made using biodynamic practices.

Domaine Heresztyn-Mazzini Gevrey Chambertin Vieilles Vignes

Domaine Heresztyn-Mazzini Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Champonnets

Code: B3770518 6 Bottles TBC

Domaine Heresztyn-Mazzini Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru Les Goulots

Code: B3151818 6 Bottles TBC

From a vineyard with a cool micro-climate, this is serious, muscular and taut in style. It has a rich, dark fruit profile with great focus and a really long, undulating finish.

Domaine Heresztyn-Mazzini Clos Saint-Denis Grand Cru

Code: B3152618 6 Bottles TBC

A beautiful nose – sweet and spicy fruit with a lovely rich core of fruit on the palate. It manages to perfectly walk that fine line of being both concentrated yet elegant with a firm oak finish.
